*Just the Facts: The Importance of Facts and the Appellate Record
To Responsible Decision-Making and Appellate Advocacy*
March 27-29, 2019
The Inn at St. John's

Mission Statement

Our mission is to improve the administration of appellate justice in Michigan through conferences designed to encourage an exchange of ideas among Michigan appellate lawyers, judges, and court staff. The Michigan Appellate Bench Bar Conference Foundation believes that this interchange of ideas allows for participants to learn how to better perform their roles in the process and collectively to improve it.

Co-Chairs Mary Massaron, Plunkett Cooney, and Phillip DeRosier, Dickinson Wright PLLC

9:15-10:45 a.m.

Plenary - Just the Facts: The Importance of Facts and the Appellate Record to Responsible Decision-Making and Appellate Advocacy

In this informative and interactive plenary session, a panel of Court of Appeals judges and court staff will discuss various issues relating to the facts and record on appeal, including topics such as correcting or expanding the record, ensuring that the record is complete, the Court's handling of "box" cases, and the effective use of facts in brief-writing.

10:45-11:00 a.m.

Refreshment Break

11:00-12:15 p.m.

Break Out Sessions

These breakout sessions will provide an opportunity for members of the bench and bar to further explore issues raised in the plenary session.

12:30-2:00 p.m.

DeWitt C. Holbrook Memorial Fund Luncheon

Speaker: Paul Clement

2:15-3:30 p.m.

Law Practice Breakout Sessions

The breakouts will be participatory — not traditional lectures from a panel of speakers. This is what makes the bench bar conference unique. All who attend the breakouts will be encouraged to participate in the discussion.

Criminal

Expanding the Facts on Appeal: Motions to Remand and Judicial Notice

In this session, we will discuss the development of off-record facts through motions to remands, evidentiary hearings, and judicial notice.

Evidentiary Standards and Changes in Technology

In this session, we will discuss how changes in technology might affect the court's standard of review when analyzing video or audio evidence or testimony.

Offense Variables, Juvenile Lifer Resentencings, and Other Fact-Intensive Sentencing Questions

In this session, we will discuss appellate review from fact-driven records in standard felony cases and juvenile life without parole cases.

Stating the Facts in the Statement of Facts

In this session, we will discuss best practices for writing a compelling and accurate Statement of Facts that will aid the court when analyzing the legal issues presented.

Civil

Brief Writing: Basics and Beyond (A)

Discussing new trends in brief writing, structure, and presentation, including: shaping the facts; working with a complex record; preservation of issues; standards of review; formulating arguments; and making a forceful case for the relief requested.

Oral Argument: Basics and Beyond (A)

How to prepare for oral argument and what to expect; bringing out the salient facts; addressing unfavorable facts; oral argument in the Supreme Court.

E-Filing Nuts and Bolts

Making the most of e-filing and service.

Taking It Up – Applications and Appeals in the Supreme Court

When to apply for leave; how to make your case stand out; briefing and argument of calendar cases.

Family

The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly of Family Law Appellate Jurisdiction

This session will explore multiple final order issues prevalent in family law appeals, including whether an order qualifies as a post judgment order affecting custody, when an attorney fee order is “final,” and handling finality problems created by a trial court bifurcation of decisions. If time allows, record issues in family law cases will be discussed.

Child Welfare

Show Me the Money!

A discussion about court-appointed fees in termination of parental rights appeals. What are fees currently? What were they ten years ago? Are they reasonable? If not, what can be done about it?

Michigan Supreme Court Mini-Oral Arguments (MOAs) - How Are They Working?

This breakout session will provide for a candid discussion of the costs and benefits derived from the increased use of MOAs in recent years. The discussion will be based on statistical information about the MOAs as well as analysis of the Court’s orders and opinions issued with and without oral argument and an order granting leave to appeal, and will include a discussion of strategy and tactics in responding to MOA orders, both as appellant and appellee.

3:30-3:45 p.m.

Refreshment Break

3:45–5:45 p.m.

Plenary – Thinking Outside the Box: What’s Working and What Might Be Improved in Our Appellate Courts

Are meritorious interlocutory appeals being granted with enough frequency? Is the current process for assigning cases to panels working? Should summary remands be used more often when the record isn’t sufficiently developed? How can our current practice of scheduling and holding oral arguments be improved? This plenary session will tackle these issues and more.

6:00 p.m.

Reception and Dinner (Dinner tables will be hosted by members of the bench)

The Appellate Practice Section’s Lifetime Achievement Award will be presented to Retired Chief Judge Michael J. Talbot, Michigan Court of Appeals.

Prior Recipients

1998 Justice Charles Levin
2001 Justice Patricia Boyle
2004 Judge Harold Hood
2007 Judge James Ryan
2010 Kathleen McCree Lewis
2012 Justice Marilyn Kelly
2013 Sandra Schultz Mengel
2015 Justice Michael F. Cavanagh
2016 Justice Maura D. Corrigan
2017 Corbin Davis

Friday, March 29, 2019

8:00-8:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast

9:15-10:15 a.m. Plenary – Technology and the Record

What are the effects of technology on the appellate process? Does the role of a reviewing court change when the “record” below consists of more than a printed transcript? What implications are there for standards of review? A panel of appellate judges and practitioners, with input from the audience, will consider these and other questions.

10:15-10:30 a.m. Refreshment Break

10:30-11:30 a.m. Law Practice Breakout Sessions

The breakouts will be participatory — not traditional lectures from a panel of speakers. This is what makes the bench bar conference unique. All who attend the breakouts will be encouraged to participate in the discussion.

Criminal

Expanding the Facts on Appeal: Motions to Remand and Judicial Notice

In this session, we will discuss the development of off-record facts through motions to remands, evidentiary hearings, and judicial notice.

Evidentiary Standards and Changes in Technology

In this session, we will discuss how changes in technology might effect the court’s standard of review when analyzing video or audio evidence or testimony.

Offense Variables, Juvenile Lifer Resentencings, and Other Fact-Intensive Sentencing Questions

In this session, we will discuss appellate review from fact-driven records in standard felony cases and juvenile life without parole cases.

Stating the Facts in the Statement of Facts

In this session, we will discuss best practices for writing a compelling and accurate Statement of Facts that will aid the court when analyzing the legal issues presented.

Civil

Brief Writing: Basics and Beyond (B)

Discussing new trends in brief writing, structure, and presentation, including: shaping the facts; working with a complex record; preservation of issues; standards of review; formulating arguments; and making a forceful case for the relief requested.

Oral Argument: Basics and Beyond (B)

How to prepare for oral argument and what to expect; bringing out the salient facts; addressing unfavorable facts; oral argument in the Supreme Court.

Fast Action – Motions, Emergencies and Unusual Cases

Interlocutory appeals and motions; defining and working with an unsettled record; emergency appeals and motions in the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court; delayed appeals; original proceedings in the Court of Appeals.

Dealing With the Facts and the Record

Presenting complex facts; going beyond the paper record; maximizing the effect of digital briefs.

Family

What's Your Standard (of Review)?

Reviewing the standards of review in family law cases, exploring the meanings the appellate courts have ascribed to the standards, and discussing what the standard should be in family law cases. If time allows, record issues in family law cases will be discussed.

Child Welfare

Keeping Up with The Joneses (Cases You Should Know)

University of Michigan professor Joshua Kay will lead a discussion on cases appellate attorneys need to know and use when writing child welfare appeals.

Supreme Court

Michigan Supreme Court Mini-Oral Arguments (MOAs)—How Are They Working?

This breakout session will provide for a candid discussion of the costs and benefits derived from the increased use of MOAs in recent years. The discussion will be based on statistical information about the MOAs as well as analysis of the Court's orders and opinions issued with and without oral argument and an order granting leave to appeal, and will include a discussion of strategy and tactics in responding to MOA orders, both as appellant and appellee.

11:30-11:45 a.m.

Refreshment Break

11:45-12:45 p.m.

Dewitt C. Holbrook Memorial Fund Luncheon

Friday's luncheon will be a special time for advocates and justices, judges, and court personnel to meet each other informally over the meal. Since practice before appellate tribunals is formal and there are few opportunities for bench and bar to talk to each other less formally than in a courtroom argument, don't miss this chance to spend an hour together getting to know those we work with.

12:45-1:45 p.m.

Plenary: Supreme Court Practice Tips

In this ever-popular session, justices of the Michigan Supreme Court will provide insight into appellate practice before the Court.
